Manager's Report

"What's Going On"

Just as you thought the weather couldn't get much weirder, Mother Nature gives us another curve. I hope that everyone made it through the major storm we had with minimal damage. I know that my neighborhood took a big hit and we lost several beautiful trees. Sure changes the look of the street forever, but life does go on.

Life goes on here at the Schwaben club too. The summer months have been slower than usual but we have booked a lot of future events and things are picking up. The Night of Vegas dinner show was a popular fan favorite and for these who missed it perhaps we could bring it back someday.

Oktoberfest tickets are on sale in the office so get yours soon. We have busy fall and winter seasons coming up and have already booked some Christmas dinner parties too.

I'm looking forward to seeing everyone back here at the Club, as we start getting into the swing of things again.

Don Egley
Manager

Frauengruppe

I hope everyone is enjoying their summer. It will soon be fall, which is a busy time for us.

Our Kirchweih is Sept 14 and we will once again set up on the day before. Raffle prizes are also appreciated for this event.

Starting on the 22nd, we will be making cabbage rolls for Oktoberfest. We are working on the Sunday to include anyone who works and would like to help. We will continue then on Monday and Tuesday until we are done.

Keep in mind that our bake sale is always a popular event on Family Day during Oktoberfest. We appreciate all baking very much.

See you Sept 4 for our 1st meeting back!

Susan Cook
President, Frauengruppe

Kindergruppe/Jugendgruppe

Wow, August is here already! Dance practice started August 8th at 6:30. The groups will be getting ready for Landestreffen and of course Oktoberfest. We are excited to welcome many new dancers from the Kindergruppe into the Jugendgruppe and look forward to recruited new dancers for both groups.

The Kindergruppe had an awesome opportunity to join the Schwaben Dancers and dance at the Blackberry Community Day at the Waterloo Town Square in July. They also entertained a group of family and friends as a couple celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary at Sunnyside Nursing Home.

We look forward to another year entertaining our community.

Kathy Beckett
Kindergruppe/Jugendgruppe President

A Tribute to the Great Ones

Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Whitney Houston, Ray Charles...yes, they are the Great Ones. And the tribute show on July 13 certainly did them justice. The performers were so good, I was certain that I was seeing the real thing.

I remember the Dean Martin show on TV.... as he leaned against the bar, glass in hand. But, oh, how he could sing. Our Dean performed with a glass of something in his hand and a slur in his voice. But, oh, how he could sing too. Especially the Italian songs such as That's Amore. The audience couldn't stop laughing at the many good jokes Dean told throughout his act. Excellent!

Then came Frank Sinatra. I have never been a fan of "The Chairman of the Board" but I soon realized that our Frank had the real Sinatra covered to a tee. He performed all of the well-known tunes: New York, New York...My Way (written by Paul Anka). He also performed a duet with Dean and they put on quite a comedy routine.

I have heard Whitney Houston sing. She had a magnificent voice and we were not sure if the tribute artist could duplicate that voice. No problem. Our Whitney belted out the famous melodies. In fact, when she sang the song from the movie The Bodyguard, the audience applauded with excitement during the song.

Ray Charles was perfect, performing such hits as Hit the Road Jack, Let the Good Times Roll, I Can't Stop Loving You...and finally Seven Spanish Angels.

It was a truly wonderful show...again.
