Bericht der Präsidentin

Ja, der April ist schnell gekommen und gegangen. Es war viel los in diesem Monat und auch eine Zeit des Zusammenkommens der Familie über die Osterfeiertage.

Wenn wir von Ostern sprechen, unser jährlicher „Good Friday Fish Fry“ war wieder ein Erfolg!

Ich kann unseren freiwilligen Helfern und unserem Küchenpersonal nicht genug dafür danken, dass sie gekommen sind und in vielen verschiedenen Kapazitäten ausgeholfen haben. Von Platzanweisung, Bestellungsannahme bis zum Servieren, von der Arbeit an der Theke bis zum Abräumen!!! Oh, und selbstverständlich unser Kassierer! Dies war mein erster „Good Friday Fish Fry“ wo ich helfen konnte und ich war sehr beeindruckt, wie reibungslos alles ging!!! Gut gemacht alle miteinander!!!

Ich habe gerade gelernt, dass vom 23. April bis 29. April die „National Volunteer“ Woche war! Im Namen von unserem Vorstand und von mir möchte ich allen unseren freiwilligen Helfern, die ihre Zeit geben, um auf vielfältige Weise im Club zu helfen, ein großes Dankeschön aussprechen.

Am Samstag, den 22. April 2017 veranstaltete der Schwaben Club das jährliche Landestrachtenfest der Donauschwaben. Ein Treffen von etwa 200 von unseren Schwobs aus Toronto, Leamington und Windsor, die hier zusammen kamen, um unsere Kultur zu pflegen. Dieses Jahr nahm eine besondere Besucherin an unserer Veranstaltung teil, Miss Kathleen Martini, Jugendleiterin (Jugenddirektorin) der USA Allianz der Donauschwaben Während unserer Veranstaltung gab Miss Cheyenne Kertes, Jugendleiterin (Jugenddirektorin) der Kanadischen Allianz der Donauschwaben eine Rede, die, wie ich denke, wunderbar geschrieben und von Herzen gesprochen wurde. Sie hat mir erlaubt, ihre Rede hier in unserem Nachrichtenblatt für diejenigen, die nicht an der Veranstaltung teilnehmen konnten, zu veröffentlichen.

Good evening everyone & thank you for being here to celebrate this evening.. I know it is always an event our Jugend look forward to every year. Before beginning my speech, I'd like to read a short poem from Jörg von der Schwalm entitled "Mei Mottersproch".

Mei Mottersproch

Viel Sproche gibt's in unsrem Land, e jedi is mer recht;

sie sin mer alli gut bekannt, doch kani klingt mer echt.

Am liebschte unner alli noch:

Is mir halt doch mei Mottersproch.

Mei Motter hat se mich gelehrt, drum is se mer so lieb;

un wer sei Mottersproch net ehrt,
Is schlechter als e Dieb!

Drum red un schreib ich immer noch

Es liebscht in meiner Mottersproch!

So fein wie Hochdeitsch is se net,
un is aa net so zart;

doch steh ich gut devor un wett:

Sie is vun beschter Art!

Drum hal ich iwer alles hoch:

Mei liewi schwowischi Mottersproch!

I know that this poem may have been a bit difficult to understand, as Schwowish is not the easiest language to tackle, but at its core it exemplifies the importance of upholding a culture and its language. It is a reminder to let all of you know to not let anyone tell you that this culture, the Donauschwaben and their traditions, are fading. The fact that you are all standing here, the fact that every weekend my snapchat and social media feeds are full of "schwob stories" (pun intended), demonstrates how we, as the next generation, are stronger and more closely aligned than ever before.

We continue to make progress in our personal lives, in our groups and individual clubs, in bringing our culture to the forefront, but it is together, in moments like these, where we truly are able to make history. You, standing here in your trachts, listening to myself and Mr. Baumann, and others ramble on, although all well – intentioned, are what make the Donauschwaben culture what it is, the experiences it carries in the future and why an event like tonight even matters in the first place.

As we celebrate Canada's 150th centennial, along with yet another Landestrachtenfest, I urge you sitting in the audience to reflect on how these young individuals today, incorporate the Donauschwaben culture into their everyday lives, whether on social media as I suggested, or with clothing, food, speech or language, amongst other ethnicities and cultures... and to compare it to how you continue to effortlessly incorporate Canadian culture into YOUR everyday lives. I personally don't think I've ever seen so many old Schwobs, my Oma included, so excited about anything as with the Leafs these past few games.

As you may be able to guess, this speech tonight is not only for the Jugend, it is not a rallying cry But rather it is more so a reminder for those who have come before us, those of you sitting in the audience tonight, our parents, omas, opas, club presidents and members, to tell you that we choose to stand before you, in the trachts of YOUR hometowns, with the knowledge, influence and passion of YOUR traditions, as proud Canadian Donauschwaben, who "hal iwer alles hoch, unsr liewi schwowischi Kanadischer Mottersproch!"

Thank you for listening & enjoy the culture, the traditions, and the festivities of the evening.

Der Abend war super! Das Essen war ausgezeichnet und das Programm verlief reibungslos. Vielen Dank an alle, die in irgendeiner Weise mitgeholfen haben!!

Wir hatten auch mehrere Vermietungen im April, einschließlich „stag and does“, „cheerleader banquet“ und Geburtstagfeiern.

Das „Group Therapy Band“ Konzert war ein Erfolg, da die „Main Hall“ ausverkauft war. Wir beenden den Monat April mit einem Konzert am 29. April von Destroyer (a tribute to Kiss)“.

Nun, es sieht aus als ob der Frühling hier ist und wir freuen uns alle nach draußen gehen und den Rasen und die Gärten aufräumen zu können, oder nur draußen den Sonnenschein zu genießen.

Ich freue mich auch schon darauf, viele freiwillige Helfer für den „Club Clean Up Day“ am 6. Mai 2017 zu sehen.

President's Report

So quickly April has come and gone. It's been a busy month and a time of family and togetherness over the Easter Celebration.

Speaking of Easter, our Annual Good Friday Fish Fry was another success!

I cannot thank our volunteers and our kitchen staff enough for coming out and helping in many different capacities!!! From seating, to order taking, to food order delivery to the tables, to bartending and to table clean up!!! Oh and of course our cashier! The food was delicious! This was my first Good Friday Fish Fry that I could help with and I was quite impressed how smoothly everything went!!! Well done everyone!!!

I just learned that April 23rd to 29th was National Volunteer Week! On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors we want to say a big thank you to all our volunteers who give of their time to help in many different ways at the club.

On Saturday, April 22, 2017, the Schwaben Club hosted the annual Landestrachtenfest der Donauschwaben. A gathering of about 200 of all our fellow Schwobs from Toronto, Leamington and Windsor were here to celebrate our heritage and culture all together! As well, we had a special visitor to our event this year. Miss Kathleen Martini, Jugendleiterin, (Youth Director) of the USA Alliance of Donauschwaben.

During our event, Miss Cheyenne Kertes, Jugendleiterin (Youth Director) of the Canadian Alliance of Donau Schwaben gave a speech which I thought was wonderfully written and spoken from her heart. She has allowed me to submit it to our Nachrichten for those of you who were unable to attend.

Good evening everyone & thank you for being here to celebrate this evening.. I know it is always an event our Jugend look forward to every year. Before beginning my speech, I'd like to read a short poem from Jörg von der Schwalm entitled "Mei Mottersproch".

The evening was great! The food was terrific and the program ran smoothly. Thanks to everyone who helped in any way!!

As well, we had several rentals in April including stag and does, a cheerleader banquet, and birthday parties.

The Group Therapy band concert was a success with a sold out crowd in the main hall!! We are ending the month of April with the Destroyer (a tribute to Kiss) concert on April 29th.

Well, looks like spring is here and we are all anxious to get outside and clean up the lawns and gardens, and just to hang outside and enjoy the sunshine.

Looking forward to seeing lots of volunteers out for Club Clean Up Day on May 6th starting a 9:00 a.m.

WHAT'S GOING ON Manager's Report

We continue to book as many events as we possibly can here at the Schwaben Club. Thanks to every one who recommends or give referrals to those looking for a great place to hold their special events, every bit helps.

I know that Oktoberfest is a ways away... BUT... Oktoberfest tickets are now available at the office. It is never too early to pick up tickets for your favourite nights so come on in and get yours soon.

The Region of Waterloo is in the beginning stages of a major reconstruction of Kings St. from Ottawa St. to Montgomery St. This places the Schwaben club right smack into the path of this project. On the positive side this reconstruction of King St. will be a welcome new beautiful frontage for the club. On the negative side this project could be under construction during Oktoberfest. Keep fingers crossed that it will be all completed by Oktoberfest but only time will tell.

I hope your May is wonderful with nice weather as you do your spring gardening..

General Manager

Kindergruppe/Jugendgruppe

Landestrachtenfest is such a great opportunity for our dance groups and families to meet people from other clubs in southern Ontario that share the same Schwa-bian heritage and culture. I always love to see the various outfits and dances that their groups display. As it was hosted at our club this year, it was an experience that many of our littlest dancers were able to enjoy. I am very proud of our own Kindergruppe and Jugend-gruppe dancers. They were very engaged and put forth their best effort to entertain the audience.

Landestrachtenfest is an important celebration of our heritage. All of the beautiful trachts have a story, and exemplify the region they are from. I was so proud to see two of our young ladies, Jessica and Emma, wearing traditional trachts made by their family and friends. I know many of our young people don't fully understand the significance of the trachts, or the stories passed down through generations, but hopefully as they hear the messages year after year, they will grow to appreciate how hard their ancestors worked to keep their culture alive. In the meantime, Landes is an opportunity to make new friends and visit ones we have made in the past. I was so happy to see the youth having fun, sharing experiences, and exchanging information to make social media connections. I know some of them will meet again soon at the Jugendlager in Akron, Ohio this summer.

We are wrapping up our dance season soon with the Mother's Day Luncheon as our final performance. Our dancers have worked hard this year and we will celebrate with a party at the end of this month.

Don't forget that although dance is over for the season, Family Soccer Night begins! We will play Friday evenings at Lackner Public School. All are welcome and no experience is required. Watch for the poster for more details.

Some of our youth and families will be hosting a bar-beque fundraiser at the Colour Paradise Garden Centre (1209 Bleams Rd, Petersburg, ON) on the holiday Monday, May 22nd. Please come out, stock up on your plants for spring planting, and support our club and its youth by purchasing a burger or sausage!

Donau Dancers

Landestrachtenfest was held at Kitchener Schwaben Club on April 22. Great dances by everyone!

Wonderful to see other groups from Windsor Teutonia dancers, Toronto Donau Schwaben Heimat Gruppe and Jugendgruppe. The Donau Dancers were very proud to showcase our new costumes made by Cedica Mejatovic in 10 days! Simply Amazing!

Miss Schwaben proudly wore Anneliese's Tracht which she wore as a member of the Schwaben Dancers 40 years ago. We thank Katie Kraehling for preparing the Tracht, which she sewed as a replica of Trachts worn in Klein Bastei in the province of Slovenia in the former Yugoslavia, and helping Jessica fit it properly.

It was great to see all the traditional costumes that have been passed down to the younger ones and for them to learn about their culture and be proud of their heritage. Great evening full of great memories!

Gearing up for Mother's Day and our fundraiser Viennese Ball Gala Evening – sure to be another great night.
