Presidents Report

Hallo fellow DonauSchwaben and friends. My name is Stefan Orsan, and I am more than proud to have been elected to be the Kitchener Schwaben Club president in 2022. Many of you know me more for my behind the scenes work helping the frauengruppe setup for filmnachtmittag, cooking for Mia San Mia or organizing Schwaben Family Soccer. But I have decided to take a more proactive role to bring some of my vision to our club and culture.

The last 2 years of Covid and a club move have indeed been very challenging for all of us, but I know that our people have overcome even bigger obstacles in the past and I know in my heart that we can do it again. We have great support from the local community in Breslau, and our membership seems reinvigorated, so we a unique opportunity to spark a renaissance of our club, and along with an amazing Board of Directors I believe we can achieve this.

When I was young, I had the great pleasure of living with my Oma and Opa (Sophie and John) and heard many great stories about our culture and the good times that they had back in the heimatland. This is very important to me to continue this, while also welcoming new members to share our amazing culture with.

As you all know, I am open to any ideas and will gladly lend an ear to any concerns you may have, so you may reach me at stefan.schwabenclub@gmail.com or just stop me when you see me at the club.

PS. All future comments in the nachrichten will also be in Deutsch (just let me brush up on it a bit first).

Frauengruppe News

For the love of books and discussion of Donauschwaben culture with modern relevance.

Open to anyone interested in discussing books, DS culture and living in a modern world. Liz O'Reilly is moderating an evening at the Schwaben Club, schnitzel dinner, drinks, social time on Jan. 21, 2022. Starting at 6:00 pm for drinks and dinner, 7:00 pm book discussion on Lori Wolf-Heffner's novel, Between Worlds 4: What Friends Do until 8:00pm.

Please note this novel relates to the Old World and Waterloo Region. Its contents are relevant to our experiences of family, friendship and creating meaning in our lives. To purchase this book contact the local Kitchener author at <http://www.loriwolfheffner.com>. To join this dinner & book group please rsvp Lea Becker at lea.schwaben@gmail.com.

Cultural News

Hi everyone, this will be my last write up as your Cultural Director. I thank everyone who supported me in this role, who sent their words of encouragement and thanks. I wish Cathy Thompson the best of luck as the incoming Cultural Director.

I would like to thank Susan Cook, Monika Hoedl, Lea Becker, Erin Wetzel, Cole Watson, Lena Herold, Cathy Thompson, Jen Orsen, and Karin Kahnke for all your help with making the Krapfen for our Schlachtfest dessert. I know I couldn't have done it without you. They were wunderbar!

Congratulations to Ray Tomchick, our 2022 Mr. Schwaben. On behalf of the membership we hope you enjoy your year and wish you all the best.

Tina McQuabbie,
Cultural Director

Great time was had by all at this years Schlachtfest and announcement of our 2022 Mr.Schwaben, Ray Tomchick. We wish you all the best!

The Christmas Luncheon was a full house. We had a visit from Santa Claus and all enjoyed a sing-a-long with Joel and performances by the dance groups and members too!
